LaMottes Cook Dinner at Home, Eat It in Camp at Death Valley

By JANET ROBINSON
FR 5-7063

Nellie and Ed LaMotte and their three children, Eddie, Desmond, and Joellen, of 5038 Newton St., had a wonderful vacation recently at Death Valley. Nellie cooked their Thanksgiving dinner on Wednesday at home.

On Thursday she just heated it in their camping trailer's oven and presto, they had their delicious dinner at the Furnace Creek Camp Grounds on Thursday. With headquarters at Furnace Creek, they made many sight seeing junkets to all the place of interest during their four day stay.

John and Ruth Chedotte, 5050 Newton St., have had John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chedotte of Hemet, visiting them for two weeks. They returned home last Sunday.

Richard DeArmitt, 5102 Pacific Coast Hwy., called in to report they have a tame banded green parakeet that flew into their yard on Friday, Nov. 23. The owner may call and claim their bird.

All the girls gathered first at the Calohan home and enjoyed eating the beautifully decorated pink birthday cake and ice cream, then William and Edith took them to the rink where they spent the evening skating.

Those enjoying the fun were Becky McLeod, Bonnie and Jeanne Tripaldi, Janny Robinson, Patty Potter and, of course Linda.

A group of girls from Guild 4 of the St. Lawrence Martyr parish recently had a stork shower for Pate Yates at Ginny Helland's home on Newton. About 20 women joined in the good wishes for Pat.

Pat was the surprised recipient of a lovely housecoat to wear at the hospital and many various gifts for the baby. A beautifully decorated "Stork" cake and ice cream were served along with coffee, nuts and candy.

Flash!!! The fourth son was added to the Yates' household last Saturday, Dec. 1. Melvin and Pat have named the new-comer Daniel Nicholas. He weighed in at 7 lbs. in the Long Beach hospital where he was born.

Melvin's mother, Mrs. Melvin Yates Sr., flew in from Billings, Mon., yesterday, to take over the care of Johnny, 8; Dickie,

6, and Jimmie, 16 months, while Pat is at the hospital. She will stay just as long as she is needed. She says it's interesting getting back into the swing of things as she just raised boys herself.

The Highgrove Canasta Club met at Joyce Sullivan's home on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27. The women all met Joyce's sister, Susanna Lang, who is visiting the Sullivans.

Others enjoying the evening of canasta were Mary Bowman, Delores Struble, Virginia Harney, Ann Burns and "Jo" Quinn. Cream puffs filled with vanilla ice cream and topped with strawberries were served at the close of the evening.

The Ellinwood Bridge Club met at Maude Buckley's home on Green Meadows on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27. Three tables of bridge played through the evening.

Plans for the year's activities and registering the girls for the new year were accomplished Wednesday evening at the mothers' meeting for Brownie Troop 240.

The gathering took place at the home of Mrs. Roland Rogers, 4521 Green Meadows Ave. Mrs. Rogers, with the assistance of Mrs. George Peck, served refreshments to those in attendance.

Last Friday morning the girls of the troop had a delightful time at a local skating arena where they entered in several games and activities provided by the management.

Those in attendance were Helene New, Donna VanCamp, Cynthia Romero, Barbara O'Kain, Kathy Mayer, Gayle Woodworth, Diane Mel, Lynn Zerkie, Linda Rogers, and Carolyn Peck. They were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. George Peck and Mrs. Roland Rogers.

Hartman in School

Attending the Memphis (Tenn.) Naval Air Technical Training Center's Aviation Machinist's Mate School is Elvin D. Hartman, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Alma V. Hartman, 909 W. 25th St., Harbor City.

Allen Graduates

Daniel D. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Allen of 1031 E. Joel, graduated from recruit training Saturday at the Naval Training Center, San Diego. The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.
